CARE Pharmacies Offers Free Insulin and Needles

Washington, D.C. – According to the American Diabetes Association, approximately 17 million people in the United States have diabetes. Therefore, in honor of National Diabetes Month in November, CARE Pharmacies are offering FREE Insulin and Needles.

During the month of November and December, participating CARE Pharmacies will be offering free trial coupons for Novolin InnoLet insulin. Go to the Pharmacy to see the new, convenient dosing device.

"CARE is excited to offer this," said Gerson T. Serody, CEO, CARE Pharmacies. "We are committed to helping our patients better manage their disease."

As a family of pharmacies, CARE is in a unique position to provide products, counseling and support to patients. The Diabetes Place, located in all CARE Pharmacies, is equipped with all the products and services needed for managing diabetes in one quick and convenient stop.
